

Professional Management: Ethical Challenges in 2019

April 12 Cohen Center, Rm 214, FL Gulf Coast University, 10501 FGCU Blvd. S

9:00 am – 1:00 pm (includes lunch)

In a time when much of the national news media has become political activists, and social media platforms too often focusing on divisiveness and distortion; and some local elected officials being guided by both, the need for professional local government management to provide consistent ethical leadership has never been more challenging. What are these challenges? How do Managers and other public servants respond? What should they focus on in the future? These and other questions will drive the discussion among a panelist of local government managers and their interactions with attendees of this program. Panelists include Naples Manager Charles Chapman, Sanibel Manger Judith Zimomra, Arcadia Manager Terry Stewart, Wauchula Manager Terry Atchley and Punta Gorda Manager Howard Kunik

Don't miss this opportunity to engage in training side-by-side with Florida's managers.

All FCCMA members will be invited, but most likely participants will come from District 6 which includes county and city members within the following counties: Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands, Lee, Manatee, Monroe, Okeechobee and Sarasota.
